WHO'S WHO?

Eyan Choate, Alfred Packer (He/Him). Eyan is excited to be performing with the ACT once again! He is an audio engineer at the Meyerson Symphony Center and does freelance work as a FOH/recording engineer. He is a drummer and singer who loves to goof around on bass/guitar/keys on the side. He hopes you caught him as Bob Sheldon in the Outsiders this summer. For their immeasurable support, Eyan would like to thank his family and the wonderful cast of Cannibal!

Maggie LeMasters, Alfred Packer, (she/her). Maggie is ecstatic to be playing her first ever lead in Cannibal: The Musical! Previously, she has acted in ACT's The Guy Who Didn't like Musicals, as well as The Outsiders. She looks forward to making her directing debut next year! She would like to thank her wonderful, beautiful, shpadoinkle friends from Austin for always supporting her. All the glory to God.

Kasasi John, Polly Pry (She/Her). Kasasi is thrilled to play Polly in her second show at ACT. She previously played Two Bit in The Outsiders. Outside of theatre, she enjoys books and documentaries. She would like to thank the entire cast and director for bringing the show to life in an incredibly fun and memorable way.

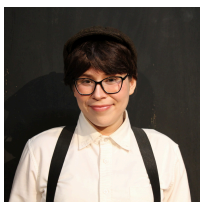

Hiroto Harris, Mr. Mills/The Cyclops. Hiroto Harris is excited to be in his first theater performance. He is thankful for opportunity and is always looking to gain new experiences. Having worked as a sushi chef and a game tester for Gears of War, adding one more odd experience to his wheelhouse is nothing new. He'd like to thank his girlfriend Maya, for conscripting him to take on these roles.

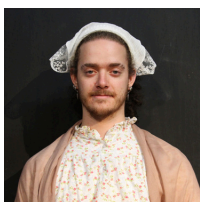

Diana Vides, Liane (She/Her). Diana is excited to play a horse! She's excited to be in her second musical every and not have to sing a note this time (neigh). She has been in past ACT shows such as the Narrator in The Princess Bride and ensemble in Reefer Madness. She was also Peter and Balthazar in Romeo and Julian at Beacon Theatre. She would like to thank her friends for always supporting her and hopes everyone enjoys the show! (That's all she's asking for)

Maya Garcia, Swan (she/her). Maya is making her theatre debut in Cannibal! The Musical after years of dreaming about being onstage. Moving from El Paso to Dallas gave her the chance to finally work up the courage to audition, and through this show, she's found a community in her new city. That's made her first show even more special, and she's grateful to everyone who's been cheering her on.

Argo Sloan, Shannon Wilson Bell (Pronouns). Argo is ready to bring the first mormon nun to stage. You may recognize them from ACT's "The Guy Who Didn't Like Musicals" earlier this season! This previous production was their first theater production, with Cannibal! being the second, and you can expect to see them at ACT in various upcoming shows. They would like to thank their incredible partner Angelique for always encouraging their exploits, and give a heartfelt thanks to each of their friends who have come to support!

Bella Butter, George Noon (She/Her). Bella Butter is stoked to debut her first role in Cannibal: The Musical. She hopes to continue her new creative journey after this performance. A fun fact is that she has a big passion for fashion and is a huge comedy enthusiast. She appreciates the support from her family and hopes to make them proud and laugh.

Boston Prendergast, Humphrey, (He/him). Boston is incredibly excited to play the role of Humphrey in his first production at the Art Centre Theatre! He has not done theatre in nearly a year, and is very excited to get back into it! Some of his favorite past roles include bill (Mama Mia), the narrator (Into the woods), and ensemble in phantom of the opera! Outside of this, he's recently loved leading and founding his high school barbershop quartet (The Gold Standard)! He'd love to thank his mom and family for supporting him as an actor!

Sean Gallygan, Frank Miller (He/Him). Sean Gallygan is incredibly excited to perform in ACT's production of Cannibal! The Musical. Prior to this, Sean played Willard in Footloose and Richard Hannay in the 39 steps. When Sean isn't on stage, he is hanging out with his dog Rufus or at work. Sean would like to thank his friends, parents, and teachers and PLEASE DONT THROW TOMATOES AT ME.

Connor Kingsley, Frenchy Cabazon (He/Him). Connor is very excited to be returning for his fourth show at ACT! Previous roles include Mr. Davidson/Sam/General Macnamara in "The Guy Who Didn't Like Musicals" and Ralph in "Reefer Madness". When Connor isn't making a fool of himself on the stage, he's teaching theatre to the next generation of stage actors. He would like to thank his wife, Cammie, for being his biggest supporter in every aspect of his life.

Tiger Monahan, Nutter/Doomed Guy (He/Him). He loves to do both tech and acting. His favorite role was Dallas Winston in The Outsiders by S. E. Hinton. Outside of the theater he enjoys reading and Volunteering. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Arpit "Pete" Bajpai, Chief (He/Him). Pete was born on the mean street of Fatehpur, UP, India. After surviving this notoriously unforgiving upbringing, he eventually found his way to Texas, where he spends his days working with data and his nights pursuing more respectable interests such as theatre, Pathfinder, fighting games, and microdosing things better left untouched. Pete is thrilled to make his contribution to Cannibal! The Musical, a production perfectly suited to his lifelong commitment to INdignity, cultural INSensitivity, historical INaccuracy, and being INdian. He hopes you enjoy the show and asks that you please not fact-check any of the preceding claims.

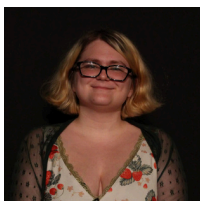

John Anderson, Sheriff (He/Him). John Anderson is excited for you to see Cannibal: The Musical. A student at UT Arlington pursuing a BFA in Acting, he has been performing for over ten years, and this is his second performance with the ACT. Aside from acting, his other interests include literature, film, and music. "Life isn't about finding yourself or finding anything. Life is about creating yourself, creating things." —Bob Dylan

Sam Grantham, Judge/Stagehand (He/Him). Sam hopes you devour this theatrical feast of... Cannibal! The Musical. This is his first time taking the stage since an equally strange journey as Rocky in the Rocky Horror Show. By day Sam works for one of the worlds largest tech companies and enjoys 3d printing. He wants to thank Siobhan, Reiner, and Malcolm and their 4 kitties.

Cam Kingsley, Director (She/Her). Cam Kingsley is incredibly excited to be bringing Cannibal: The Musical to the ACT stage this October! You may recognize her from her directorial debut of The Guy Who Didn't Like Musicals earlier on in this season at ACT, or from her time on the ACT stage in Girl's Weekend (Ellie) or Reefer Madness (Ensemble). When Cam isn't making crazy amounts of prop organs for her show, she's working on her next manuscript. She would like to thank her wonderful husband, Connor Kingsley, for always being her biggest supporter, in and out of theatre.

Jaden Ferguson, Music Director and Cast (She/They). Jaden is a Professional Musician, Vocal Coach, Actor, and Singer. Jaden earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music Education, with a concentration in Voice, from The University of North Texas! Jaden began Choral Directing various grade levels in Fort Worth ISD and Carrollton Farmers-Branch ISD post graduation. Previous Directing experiences include Musical Organizations at UNT, East Dallas Arts Theatre, ACT Plano, and NTPA Grapevine. Jaden is so excited to be apart of the cast for Cannibal! You can find Jaden performing in upcoming Choral ensembles and leading a private voice lesson studio!

Siobhan Grantham, Choreographer (She/Her) Siobhan can often be seen lurking around ACT, playing both on and off stage. Recent productions she's been involved with include The Outsiders, Monkey's Paw, and Masquerade of Shadows. She's had so much fun working on Cannibal and is so grateful for her family's love and support. Thank you for being here and supporting live theater!

Ozzie Dinwiddie, Tech (He/Him). Ozzie is excited to make his stage tech debut, having acted in musicals and plays in high school. Ozzie is also a huge nerd, gamer, houseplant collector, and music enjoyer. He would like to thank his friends Hurley and Jaden for encouraging him to be involved in community theatre again!

Hurley Clark, Stage Hand (They/He). Hurley Clark is so excited to be a part of Cannibal: the Musical and back behind the stage! You may recognize him from his role as Ted in ACT's The Guy Who Didn't Like Musicals! Hurley has not been a part of tech since his time studying at Stephen F. Austin and he is so excited to put the show blacks blacks on! They wish the cast and crew the best show during this run and they are so excited to be apart of it!

Nicolas Leon, Tech (He/Him). Nicolas Leon is proud to bring Cannibal: The Musical to ACT. Nicolas has previously worked on The Guy Who Didn't Like Musicals preformed at ACT and Who Done It And Who's the Big Idea Anyway preformed at Allen High School Theater. Nicolas always works lights but never like to be in the spot light kinda odd if you ask me. Nicolas would like to thank his mother and teachers whom set him on this path.
